

Looking for an awesome hunting tract in Wilkinson County, MS? You've found it! Chapel Wood Plantation located just between Centreville and Woodville is an unreal hunting and timberland tract. The +/- 493 acre high fenced property has been growing giant bucks since the early 2000's. Being in Wilkinson County this tract has great numbers of deer and great genetics. There have been several 170+inch deer taken off the tract with some being over 190 inches. The 8 large food plots all feature box stands and most plots have feeders. The box stands and feeders will stay with the property. There is also a beautiful campsite that features huge sawtooth oaks and a small pond. The campsite currently has a skinning shed and small barn to keep all your toys. Don't forget about the turkeys and small game Chapel Wood has them too! The south side of the tract even fronts Thompson creek for year around fun! So if you're looking for the ultimate turnkey hunting tract this is it! Call me today! Hardwoods and Pines!
