

Sandy Creek Retreat

#6649-#67051-52.19±Acres-$149,000.00 A veritable hunting oasis tucked away with a mix of recently timbered land on the east side of Sandy Creek and mature standing timber on the west side of Sandy Creek. With abundant game signs throughout the property, you have the opportunity for everything from small game in the dove, rabbit, quail arena on up to deer, turkey, bear, and predator options such as coyote and bobcat at your fingertips. Plenty of space to build a cabin or off-grid getaway without disturbing the game you seek. Located less than 15 miles from Danville and close to VIR, setup your base camp for recreational nirvana and let the good times roll. Sandy Creek Retreat is the complete package. Interested in growing timber? Replant the east side and harvest the west side. Thinking of opening up land, the east side would be easy to clear and would make for excellent rolling pastures. Take advantage of over 52 acres with plenty of opportunities to enjoy recreation and relaxation!
