Welcome to Inspiration Park. Inspiration Park is 55+- acres with four cabins and a huge storage facility where church events have been held in the past. Historically this property has served as a place for church retreats and allowed people to come together for a common purpose. Moving forward it can be used for much of the same or take on a new role that fits your needs. The property is made up of pasture land, hardwoods, and planted pine while also being home to a few ponds that make for great fishing. If your goal is to have a weekend getaway then this can serve as a great option. The property would also make a great place to host weddings and events and serve as a venue making it a great investment. Deer and turkey are frequent visitors to Inspiration Park and can be seen wandering through the pasture. Located in Kentwood you are close to Hammond, Covington, and Baton Rouge but feel as though you are in the secluded countryside. Whether you are looking for a weekend retreat or want to create a great venue to host events this property can suit the needs of many. Set up your private showing today.
