157.72 Acre Ranch
Sonora, Texas 76950

$659,000

The ranch features a mix of cleared flatland ideal for food plots, rolling hills with stunning views, and a dry creek bed shaded by towering live oaks, the perfect roosting spot for Rio Grande turkeys. An abundance of axis deer also roam the property, making it a prime hunting destination. Fenced and cross-fenced, it's well-suited for livestock operations. A water well powered by a solar pump, rock pila for water storage, and an overflow feeding into a dirt pond is perfect for both livestock and wildlife. A newly built cabin adds to the charm, offering a cozy getaway to enjoy the land. For hunters, the property includes a game feeder and hunting blind. Whether you're looking for a recreational haven, a hunting paradise, or a working ranch, this property delivers it all. Don't miss this opportunity to own a private yet conveniently located piece of West Texas.
