Welcome to 52 Ogden Road in the highly sought-after Kingston community of Natchez—a private country getaway on 7+ acres with rolling hills, woods, and abundant wildlife. This 3-bedroom, 2.5-bath home sits behind a gated driveway and overlooks a pond, offering privacy and charm. Inside, the open-concept kitchen and living area includes a breakfast nook and large dining room, while the spacious master suite features a walk-in shower, a standalone tub, a his-and-hers vanity, and direct access to a back porch with wooded views. Downstairs also offers an office that could serve as another bedroom, while upstairs includes two guest bedrooms, a full bath with double vanity, and a large bonus room perfect for another bedroom or playroom. The interior has been freshly painted with updates throughout, and the property also includes a food plot with a wildlife feeder, a 24x70 pole barn, and a new 26KW standby generator. With 6" insulated walls, modern upgrades, and just minutes from town, this home offers the perfect balance of seclusion and convenience.
