This beautiful 23± acre property in Amite County offers an ideal combination of rolling pasture, beautiful homesites, privacy, and recreational potential. Located east of Liberty and west of McComb, the tract features gorgeous open pasture with plenty of room for a home, shop, barn, horses, or cattle. A small creek winds through the wooded portion of the property, providing added character, wildlife habitat, and opportunities for deer hunting right out your back door. Surrounded by attractive properties and beautiful countryside, this manageable acreage offers the peace of rural Mississippi while remaining convenient to both Liberty and McComb. Whether you're looking to build a permanent home, create a weekend getaway, establish a small farm, or invest in quality Amite County land, this versatile property deserves a look.
