United Country Real Estate | Southern States Realty

This 576± acre hunting and recreational property on Highway 24 in Wilkinson County, Mississippi, offers some of the prettiest terrain in the Woodville hills! Featuring rolling ridges, steep hillsides, beautiful creek bottoms, and a mixture of mature timber and recently clearcut areas, this tract provides excellent habitat for deer and turkey. White Creek and Percy Creek run along the property, adding scenic creek frontage and natural beauty. An established interior road system provides convenient access throughout the acreage, while the diverse terrain offers plenty of opportunities for hunting, riding, and exploring. Known for producing big bucks, this area offers outstanding hunting opportunities with plenty of room for multiple hunters. A small, livable brick camp is already in place and could use some updating, making it a great starting point for hunting weekends. With Highway 24 access, beautiful hardwoods, abundant wildlife, and 576± acres of prime recreational land, this is an excellent opportunity to own a large hunting tract in southwest Mississippi!
